NATIONAL ARCHIVES MICROFILM PUBLICATIONS

INTRODUCTION

On the rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the pension payment cards maintained by the Bureau of Pensions and Veterans Administration for recording payments made from 1907 to 1933 to members of the Regular Military Establishment. These payment cards are part of Records of the Veterans Administration, Record Group 15.

Although an act of September 29, 1789 (1 Stat. 95), provided for the continuance of pensions approved by the Continental Congress, it did not assign the pension payment function to any department. The act of March 23, 1792 (1 Stat. 243), that permitted the addition of new names to the list of existing pensioners, specifies that pension payment functions were to be executed by the Secretary of War. Not until legislation of 1818 and 1819 was the Secretary of War authorized to approve applications for pensions and to place invalids on the pension list without prior congressional approval.

By 1810 a unit known as the Office of Military Bounty Lands and Pensions had developed within the Secretary's Office. Between 1810 and 1815 the unit was referred to as the Military Bounty Lands and Pensions Branch (or Section). After the Branch was divided into two units in 1815, the Pension Bureau and the Land Warrant Bureau, the former was generally referred to as the Pension Office. In March 1833 Congress provided (4 Stat. 622) for the appointment of a Commissioner of Pensions under the general direction of the Secretary of War; in March 1849 Congress established (9 Stat. 395) the Department of Interior, to which the Pension Office was transferred. On July 21, 1930, by Executive Order 5398, the Bureau of Pensions (formerly called the Pension Office) was consolidated with other agencies also serving veterans to form the Veterans Administration, an independent executive agency.

Until about the middle of 1909, records of pension payments were kept in pension agency payment books. In 1907 the method was changed to a card system, and the transfer of basic information from the payment books to the payment cards for all invalids and widows still being pensioned at the time of the change in recordkeeping was begun.

There are approximately two million cards, 5 inches by 8 inches in size, reproduced in this microfilm publication. They have been filmed in alphabetical order by surname of the Army or Navy invalid or widow, except that cards with Indian names have been filmed alphabetically at the beginning of the respective letter of the alphabet. The form of the card is almost identical for the four classes. On the front of the cards entitled "Army Invalid" and "Navy Invalid" are the name of veteran, his certificate number, his unit or arm of Service, the disability for which pensioned, the law or laws under which pensioned, the class of pension or certificate, the rate of pension, the effective date of pension, the date of the certificate, any fees paid, the name of the pension agency or group transferred from (if applicable), the date of death, the date the Bureau was notified, the former roll number, and "home." On the reverse side of the form appear the name of the veteran, his certificate number, and the rate and record of the individual payments. On the "Army Widow" and "Navy Widow" cards, the widow's name replaces the veteran's, and the veteran's name replaces the information about the disability for which pensioned. A block is available on the "widow" card for recording payments made to minors. A major change in the form of the card occurred in 1923, when the payment was made monthly instead of quarterly. Pensioners whose payments extended beyond this period had their payments recorded on a second card—the monthly payment card. In the few instances where a communication has been attached to a card, the communication has also been filmed.

Also in Record Group 15 are the pension agency payment books from 1805 to 1909, which preceded the system of pension payment cards; the registers of pension certificates issued to Army and Navy veterans, their widows, and other dependents to 1914; and the registers of pension applications to 1916.

The editorial material for this publication was prepared by Maizie Johnson and Willna Pacheli.

THE WASHINGTON POST:

VETERAN OF MANY WARS.

DEATH OF 'DEAD' MAN

Monument Already Erected to Capt. Wesley Markwood.

THOUGHT SLAIN 50 YEARS AGO

Mourned as Corpse in Texas, Oldest "Native of Washington" Returned Home Later, and, After Many Years, Expired Yesterday at Home of Daughter—Life Like Fiction.

Mourned for as dead more than 50 years ago, and a monument erected over his supposed grave in San Antonio, Tex., Capt. Wesley Markwood, who claimed to be the oldest native born inhabitant of Washington, died yesterday of heart failure at the home of his daughter, Mrs. N. M. Miller, Vista street, Woodridge, D. C. He was supposed to have been killed during the Mexican war while using another name, but later joined the army under his real name and served during the Mexican, civil, and Indian wars.

The life story of the aged veteran who died yesterday and who was in the employ of the United States government for more than 70 years was replete with incidents far more dramatic than the strangest tale of fiction. Under the name of Capt. Markwood, and under the name of Col. Samuel H. Walker, he gained wide renown as a soldier and scout. The history of his life was kept a secret by him until he died, only members of his immediate family even suspecting the real story of his past. It was while using the name of Walker that he was supposed to have been killed.

Enlisted at Age of Twelve.

At the age of 12 Markwood enlisted for the Creek war. He afterward served in the Florida campaign. In the spring of 1843 he joined a company of Texas rangers under Col. Jack C. Hays.

Capt. Markwood, while still in the army, became involved in a dispute with a commanding officer, and found it necessary to leave the army at that time. He became a messenger in the War Department. Two years later he resigned, joining an expedition in Texas against the Indians. He joined the army this time under the name of Samuel H. Walker.

In the war with Mexico he played a distinguished part, and his name was often mentioned for bravery. He was supposed to have been killed at the battle of Huamantla, and a county in Texas was named in his memory.

Again in the Ranks.

Just how he happened to escape and his name included among the dead was never revealed by Capt. Markwood. Not long afterward he assumed his former name and again enlisted in the army, serving again with distinction.

At the close of the Mexican war he enlisted in the navy, and after the termination of his enlistment obtained an appointment as noncommissioned officer in the Second United States dragoons. When the civil war broke out he was transferred to the Fourth cavalry. In 1864 he came a commissioned officer and served two years more, later becoming an agent for the freedman's bureau.

He was then given a position in the War Department, and later in the Agricultural Department, which he gave up a year ago because of failing health.

Capt. Markwood is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Imogene Cooper, of 411 Ninth street northeast, and Mrs. Nellie M. Miller, of Vista street, Woodridge, D. C., at whose house he died. The funeral will take place this afternoon from Scott's undertaking parlors. The interment will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Capt. Wesley Markwood, Who died suddenly yesterday.
